

January 5, 1984

Robert :

Thank you for all your marvellous Christmas presents : Alice Rashleigh sits on a far corner of my desk, the star anise is in a green, lidded Depression Glass dish on the 'server' in the dining room ( Mother over Christmas told me that the silver chest was located in the 'server', the small two-doored companion to the buffet, in the bird's eye maple bedroom with the waves-in-plaster ceiling ), the Dutch house bottle is in a box in the U. S. Mail system on its way here ( WSP was to mail it for me on Tuesday, Jan. 3 ), the Honesdale Decorating pansy vase is also on the server as is the 'Ora dress' feedbag. I am drinking a very nice blend of tea : mostly English Breakfast but with a sprinkle of Earl Grey. I am drinking it with lots of milk, and using the gold lined white 14 Dart Avenue china. I can't think what else you gave me for Christmas. Yesterday I sent the check for the gloxinia. Peg's calendar to me is nice but certainly didn't cost her $12 so I have decided to keep one of the 4 gloxinia for Mother : 2 for you, 1 for Peg, 1 for Mother. I am enclosing the clipping about Mrs. Lundberg. Will you give it to Bob Tomaine. I am also enclosing a sheet entitled "Squirrel Academy dream" which I just wrote; it is fanciful and amusing. In the event you don't get a CLIC announcement I am sending mine along to you, and also the Norman materials that came yesterday. Neither of the latter do I want back.

John : thank you for the ambrotype. You wouldn't by any chance know the name of the family out of whose house the ambrotype came, would you ?

Tina thanks you for the insurance assistance, and I can't wait to see what the Catherine McInerney album turns out to be.

From my point of view, the prospect of inspecting a great quantity of new microfilm would be a great pleasure. I would be on the look-out for things photographic.

As you move around in your elevated social circle if the opportunity comes to ask about the sister of John Cramer and the house at the corner of Laurel and Parte I would appreciate whatever you can ascertain. I looked in the phone book and there is not a phone listed at that location.

I believe I mentioned that Tina and I went to Baltimore to an auction with the Holsteins. Through a man whom Mrs. Holstein met that night I have just purchased three more stereographs : Hensel # 1182 - View down Church Street, Schurch # 502 - Wyoming Valley from Prospect Rock -North, Woodward - Delaware Water Gap. Xerox enclosed.

I for the second day in a row find it difficult to get started on "Nineteenth Century Pennsylvania Portrait Photography" for Saturday, March 31, 1984, 2-2:30 PM.

DWP 11:54 AM

— # 1182 —

This is a Xerox copy of the original card that was purchased by DWP recently.

STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS OF CARBONDALE, PA.

Photographed and Published by
L. HENSEL, Port Jervis, N. Y.
NO. 1182

- No.
1181-1182—THE MARCY HOUSE, near Del. & Hud. depot.
1189—View down Main street from the Marcy House.
1190—View down Main street from Wall street.
1191—Looking up Main street from Wall street.
1192—View up Main street from City Hall.
1193—East side of Main street, looking up from City Hall.
1194—West side of Main street, looking up from City Hall.
1195—East side of Main street, looking down from City Hall.
1196—West side of Main street, looking down from City Hall.
1197—Episcopal Church, seen from Main street.
1198—Episcopal Church, seen from the Bridge.
1199—The Roman Catholic Church, front view.
1200—View down Wall street, from Main street.
1201—Jernon Block, Wall street.
1202—View down Church street.
1203—View of the Church on Church street.
1204—Presbyterian Church, Church street.
1205—Carbondale, seen from above the Highways.
1206—Head of N. & P. River, and Carbondale seen from above the Highways.
1207-1208—Van Bergen & Co's Iron Foundry.
1209—Del. & Hud. Gravity Road Depot.

VIEWS OF PIKE COUNTY, PA.

- 209—The Bluff House, Milford, Pike County, Pa.
210—View down the Delaware Valley, from the Bluff House.
211—Episcopal Church, Milford, Pa.
212-213—The new foot bridge in the Glen, Milford, Pa.
214—The drive in the Glen, Milford, Pa.
215—Reflection in the Sawkill in the Glen, Milford, Pa.
216—The Sawkill House, Milford, Pike County, Pa.
217—Conestoga Spring House, Pike County, Pa.
218—High Falls Hotel, Dingman's, Pike County, Pa.
219—Bellevue Hotel, Dingman's Ferry, Pike County, Pa.
220—Upper Cascade of the Indian Ladder.
221—Indian Ladder, first run.
222—Lower Run of the Indian Ladder, seen from above.
223—Lower Run of the Indian Ladder, seen from below.
224—Indian Ladder High Falls, close view.
225—Indian Ladder High Falls, distant view.
226—Factory Falls and Table Rock.
227—Factory Falls on Dingman's Creek.
228—Palmer Falls, front view.
229—Palmer Falls, side view.
230—The Gorge, seen from above Palmer Falls.
231—Palmer Falls, front view from below.
232—Palmer Falls, seen through the rocks.
233—Distant view of the Palmer Falls.
234—Deeptrap Falls, front view.
235—Deeptrap Falls, side view.